UI Front Page

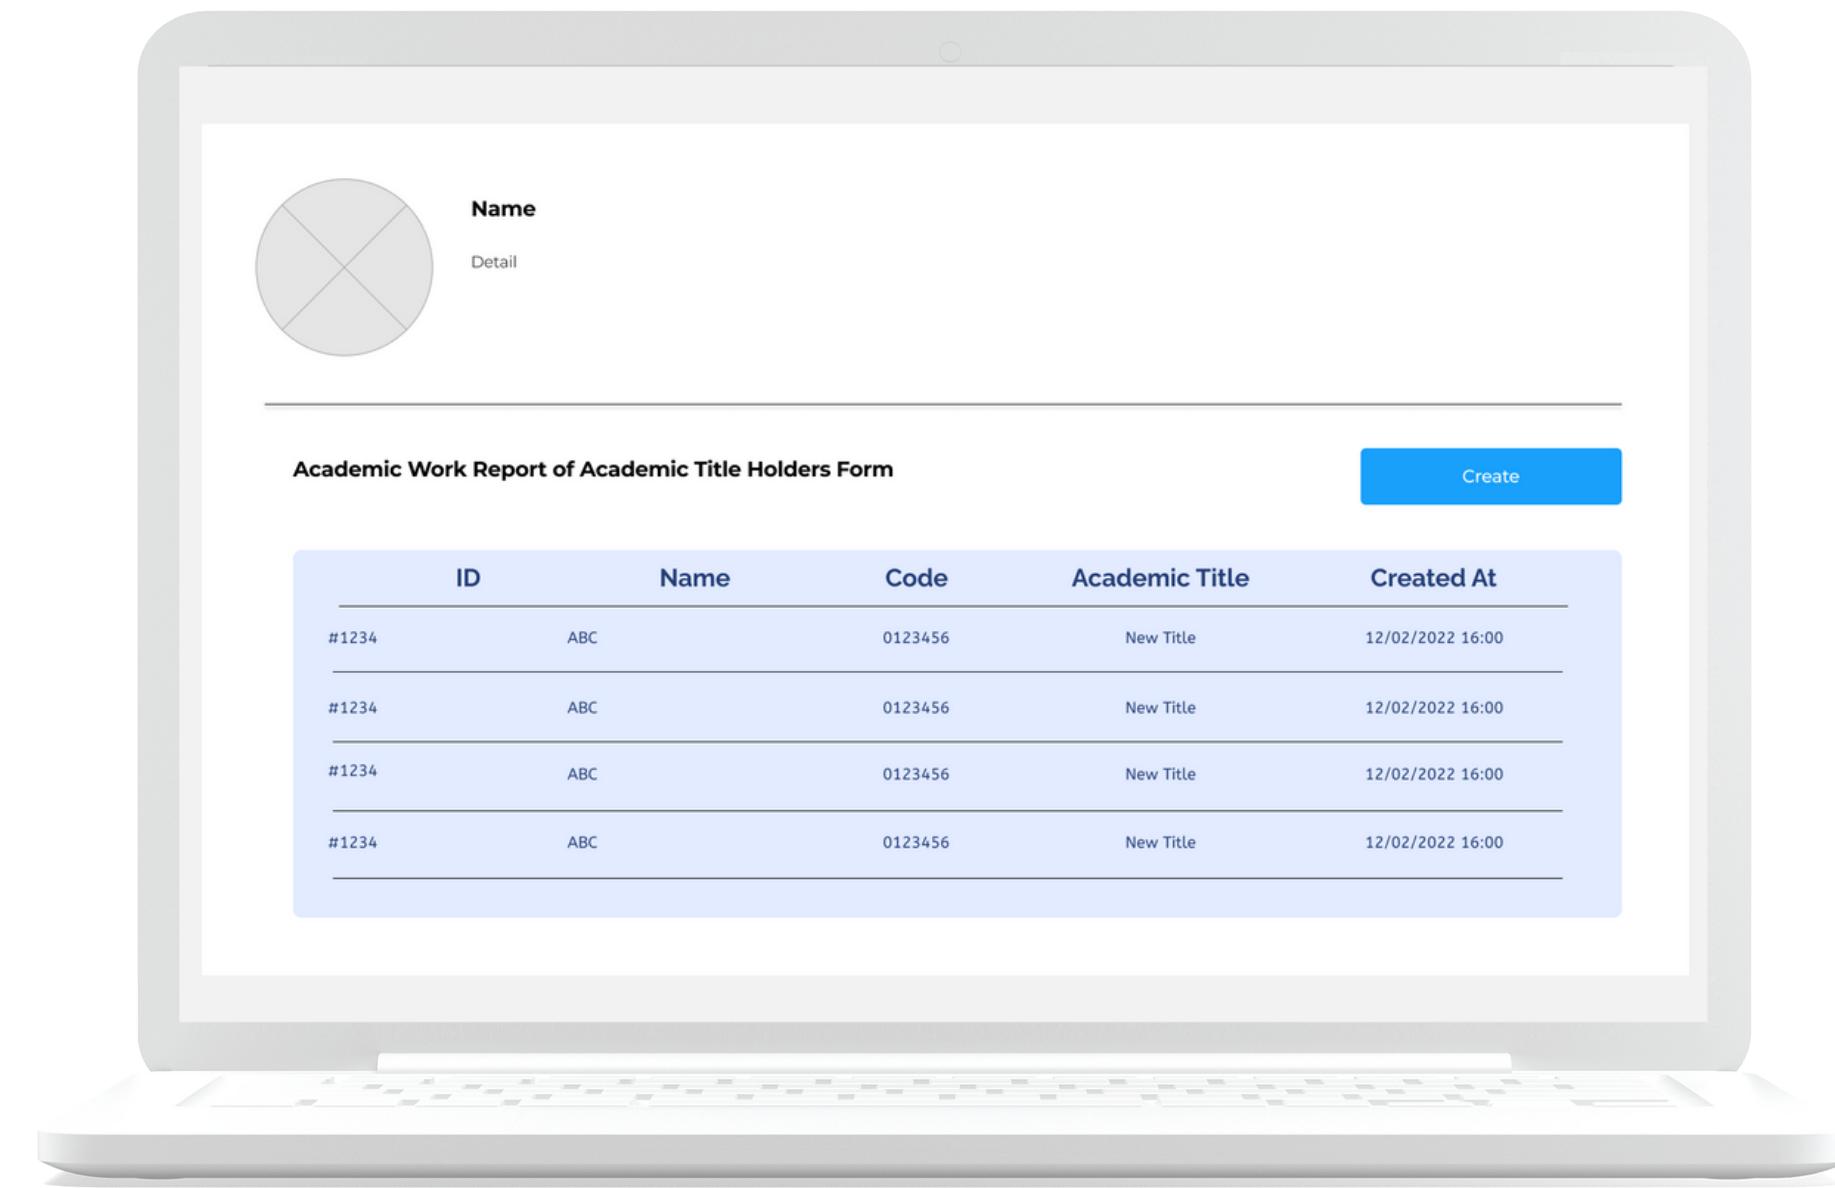

UI - Academic Title Create Form

The screenshot shows a web-based application interface. On the left, there is a placeholder circular image labeled "Name" and a "Detail" link. Below this, there are input fields for "First Name*" and "Last Name*", and dropdown menus for "Code", "Telephone", and "E-mail". Further down, there is a dropdown menu for "Academic Title" and another for "Department/Program". A section titled "1. Teaching" contains a "Semester: 1/2019" label and a table with four rows. Each row has columns for "Course Code #1", "Course Title", "Course Credit", "No of Section", and "Hours/Week (1x2)". The entire form is displayed on a laptop screen.

The screenshot shows a continuation of the web-based application. It features two sections: "3.2 Publication of Academic Article" and "3.3 Publication of Book/Text Book". Each section contains a table with two rows. Each row has a "Title #1" and "Title #2" column, followed by "Weight" and "IRAS's Verification" columns with "Accurate" and "Inaccurate" options. At the bottom right of the page are "Submit" and "Cancel" buttons.

UI - Academic Title List Form

UI Co-Author Create

The image shows a wireframe of a laptop computer. The screen displays a project proposal form. At the top left is a placeholder circular image with a crosshair pattern. To its right is the heading "Name" and below it, the word "Detail". Below this section is a horizontal row of five blue square icons with corresponding labels: "Research Article", "Text Book", "Academic Article", "Book", and "Academic Work of Other Types". Further down the screen, there are sections for "Publication #1" and "Publication #2", each with a long blue input field. To the right of these fields is the text "There Were" followed by another long blue input field. Below these sections are three rows for "Principal Researcher/Author #1", "Principal Researcher/Author #2", and "Principal Researcher/Author #3", each consisting of a blue input field, a blue " % of Duties" input field, and a blue "Responsibilities" input field. At the bottom of the screen is a section for "Co-Authors #1", featuring a blue input field, a blue " % of Duties" input field, and a blue "Responsibilities" input field.

UI Co-Author List
